Honolulu Museum of Art

World Religion through Art Tour

Student Booklet

Welcome to the Honolulu Museum of Art

This booklet contains works of art that represent different religions and cultures found at the museum.

Use this booklet to recall what you observed, questioned and noticed during your visit.

You may write notes around the images.

When you look at religious art, ask yourself these questions:

What religion does this object represent?

Does the object tell an important story?

What is the material?

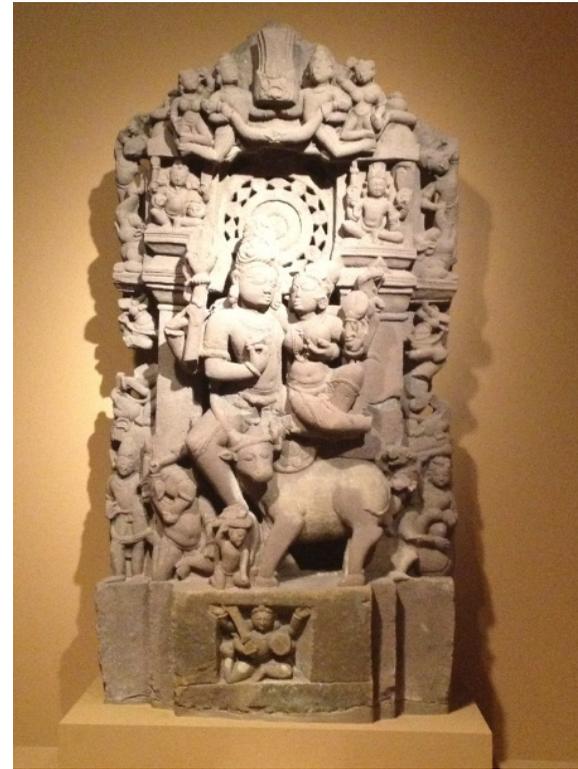

How old is this object?

What can this object tell me about this time and place?

Where might the object have been used?

What details do you notice about the object?

Are there symbols that help you understand the religion?
